Our Student Director

Kaitlyn Speakman

This is Kaitlyn's senior year at FCA. She is the student director of tonight's production. She also plays a casting director in Bad Auditions by Bad Actors. Kaitlyn has previously performed in numerous plays at her church, four FCA Madrigal Dinner Theaters, and The Sound of Music. She also worked costumes for both Narnia: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe and Fiddler on the Roof. Kaitlyn has, in prior years, been student director of some church plays and last year's Meet Me in St. Louis. This year, she was a FCA varsity cheerleader and volleyball player, as well as President of the 2014 senior class. Kaitlyn is also in National Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta. Her favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 15:1. Her future plans currently include attending college in the fall and double majoring in Business Administration and Communications. She hopes to continue her involvement in the theater world, and maybe even own her own theater someday.

Thanks from Kaitlyn ~

First off, thank you to God for helping us pull this whole thing together; it would not be possible without Him. Thank you to my family for putting up with yet another crazy play practice schedule. Thanks also to Mr. Harris, Mrs. Brake, and Mrs. Burcham for all the time and effort they put into this, and every years', production. Thank you to my cast for listening and working with me through all the madness. Also thank you to JT Burcham and the media team for working for at least two weeks on those videos; they turned out splendidly. Thank you to all the behind the scenes people on lights, sound, costumes, and makeup for helping this performance to really shine.

And if there is anyone else who helped this year, in any capacity, thank you—every little bit counts! Finally, thank you to the audience for coming tonight to support us. We have all worked very hard to make this a great play, and I hope you laugh and enjoy it just as much as we do
