

College Credit Plus – Accuplacer testing for acceptance

Students who do not have a 3.0 GPA will need to take the Accuplacer test. Students who are planning on taking English Composition I/II or Calculus I or Statistics will need to take the Accuplacer test as well.

This testing applies to students taking CCP classes through Ohio Christian University. Please see other college's requirements if you are taking classes through another University.

For students taking classes through Ohio Christian University, students will be given the opportunity to take the Accuplacer at FCA. Details will be sent out on when and where the testing will take place.

Remember that the OCU deadline for applying for Trail Blazer Academy (CCP) is March 19 and if you do not have a 3.0 GPA, this testing must be done prior to this deadline.
