THANKSGIVING BREAK: NOVEMBER 27-29

“I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart;
I will tell all of His wonderful deeds.”

PSALM 9:1

The Season of Thanksgiving

Certain words in the English language are used so often that their meanings can only be understood when they are considered in context. For example, standing before family and friends during a joyful celebration of marriage, couples profess their love to one another, and when used this way the word love conveys many things - respect, life-long commitment, friendship, and partnership, just to name a few. We also love pumpkin spice lattes, but likely without the life-long commitment part. So it is with the word thanks. We thank a stranger for holding the door open for us just as we thank the Lord in prayer for our Salvation. Having the door held open was likely helpful and genuinely appreciated; however, it is forgotten within moments. As maturing Christians, we should recognize that genuine heartfelt gratitude is not a momentary emotional response to a single event, but is instead an attitude that permeates our every thought, belief and action.

This Thanksgiving season, reflect on ways to grow towards an eternal attitude of deep gratitude instead of a momentary thankfulness that is quickly forgotten.

“Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”
1 Thessalonians 5:18

Happy Thanksgiving, Knights!
