SEUSSICAL PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S PAGE

Preparing Seussical Jr. with these students has been a phenomenal experience! In class, I love reading Scripture & quotes. For almost 25 yrs., my classroom motto has been, "For out of the overflow of the heart, the mouth speaks." (Matthew 12:34b). Contemplating on that, this particular group of young people have a lot of heart! This cast is the youngest I have produced a musical with, yet they may be the finest, most mature, & What a legacy they will leave as they grow up here at FCA! They are bright, smart & quick, encouraging,, kind respectful, caring, persevering & SUPER-TALENTED! My favorite part of working with them has been nurturing these wonderful gifts, drawing out their hearts, & developing special relationships with them, all the while encouraging their self-discipline, work ethic and perseverance. It will be fun to watch how far their God-given abilities will take them.

I am truly grateful for every minute of my teaching experience at FCA. I've been blessed to work with the administration, staff and students here, and wish to thank them & Mr. Carpenter for their leadership, example and support.

Mrs. Debby Allen
Music & Vocal Director.

I have been involved in production & vocal performance since the age of our youngest actors tonight. I have been truly blessed this year to work with such an amazing, talented, caring group of students in Seussical Jr. This cast has been so encouraging not only to me but to their Seussical teammates. For most of these students, it is their first production or musical, but they have worked like pro's! It has been my honor to introduce most of them to the stage. I am praying that this experience will open their dreams to future possibilities in the Arts & help make them aware of the wonderful gifts God has placed within each of them!

Thank you for all of your hard work Seussical team and families, & our amazing FCA staff & leadership for supporting all of us during our crazy rehearsals & for helping us to always have what we needed to make this production a success!

As an FCA board member I would like to take this opportunity to publically thank Mrs. Debby Allen for her faithful years of service to FCA & our students. Her vocal/music coaching & enthusiasm will be greatly missed as she "graduates" into retirement at the end of this school year.

Mrs. Lora Wise
Drama & Stage Director
